

Election draws 7281 voters

Tuesday's election in Wilmington drew a record 7281 voters, including 185 who voted by absentee ballots. Of the 9134 registered voters in town, 81.6% voted.

The town went decidedly for Carter, by a ratio of 4 to 3. State Senator Ron MacKenzie, facing a strong challenge by a young opponent, John Leary, held on with a vote of 3575 to Leary's 3046.

The voting pattern was almost a repeat of 1972. There were ten referendum questions, and the lines of waiting voters were long.

During the evening peak, some voters waited for an hour and a half.

In 1972, a total of 7010 voters cast ballots in Wilmington.

The bottle, can question turned out to be the closest issue in Wilmington, with 3461 yes 3493 no.

RAGGEDY ANN AND ANDY: Jennifer Brooks and her dad, Paul, were hardly horrible, presenting the cutest costumes in the Wilmington Horribles Parade.

Sixty years voting in Presidential elections

One of the early voters in Wilmington Tuesday was Atty. Phillip Buzzell, of Salem Street. His vote was cast 60 years after his first vote for a president - back in 1916.

Mr. Buzzell was Scoutmaster of Troop 1, Wilmington back in those days before World War I. He had as yet to put in service with the US Army, and he had as yet to earn his reputation in the field of law. He did earn that reputation - he is today one of the more prestigious attorneys in Massachusetts.

It is quite probable that Philip Buzzell voted the Democratic ticket. The actual vote, of course, is his secret.

His daddy, Dr. Daniel Buzzell, for whom the Buzzell School is named, was one of the first four registered Democrats in Wilmington. Back about the time of the Spanish American War there were Otis and Mark Gowing, the town clerk, Jimmy White, and the town physician, Daniel Buzzell, registered Democrats.

Veterans to march November 11

Wilmington veterans will commemorate the end of World War I and the deaths of soldiers in all wars on Thursday, November 11 in a parade from Weinberg's to the Wilmington Common.

The parade will assemble in Weinberg's parking lot at 9:30 a.m. After rededicating the flagpole at the V.F.W. Hall, the parade will proceed to Church Street, and then to the Common. A memorial service will be held on the Common at 10:45 a.m., and a flag raising will be held at 11 a.m. It was at that hour, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918 that the armistice was signed, ending World War I. The American toll in that was 53,407 deaths from battle wounds, 72,593 deaths from illness and other causes, and 204,002 wounded.

The final meeting of the parade committee will be held at American Legion Hall at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Anyone wishing to participate in the parade is welcome.

Final Bicentennial Ball November 12

The third and final Bicentennial ball for the residents of Wilmington will be held on the evening of November 12 at Hanscom Field in Bedford.

Bicentennial Commission Chairman Rudy Carrasco has announced that at that time, the commission will receive its copyright on its slogan, "Second to none in the fight for freedom." Massachusetts Secretary of State Paul Guzzi has been invited to make the presentation.

Further information is available from Carrasco at 658-2797.

After a few weeks of learning the town the new rubbish collection service is operating smoothly. So the Wilmington Board of Health reports.

There have been some elements of humor. On one occasion there was no collection on one road in the south-east part of town - or the collection was not at the time that had been scheduled for that week. Anyway, this paper received several phone calls from residents. They had taken their rubbish up to the Board of Health office, and had used the rubbish collector at that place.

Some home owners are now calling the Board of Health about collection of leaves, etc. The board has responded by saying that as many as six bags of leaves will be collected, in any week, in addition to the regular household rubbish.

The collector will not pick up refuse in paper bags nor in cardboard cartons. This is because of the problems that are created in times of dampness or rain.

Wood scraps and branches will be collected if tied into bundles of four foot lengths.

Large items, such as refrigerators and furniture will be picked up if the collector is notified in advance. The number (no charge) is 256-3432.

DEPENDABLE SERVICE FOR 45 YEARS

Austin Prep drops to Chelmsford, 26-0

Austin closed their home season by dropping a 26 - 0 verdict to Chelmsford. Chelmsford dominated the contest, scoring once in the first and second periods and put the game out of reach with two touchdowns in the final period.

The Chelmsford Lions had too much fire power for the undermanned Cougars.

The soccer squad first upset Merrimack Conference leader Methuen by a 2 - 1 score. Bill Gallagher (Wilmington) scored twice for Austin, once in the first and once in the third period to boost his team into the win column. Both goals came on direct kicks outside of the penalty area.

Austin's goalie Brian Hebert was kept busy as he made 26 saves. His counterpart in the Methuen net, Chris Childs made five stops.

The cross-country guys upped their record to 5-2 as they trounced Dracut 17 - 42. Sophomore Blaise Conte led all runners for the fifth time in dual conference meets. He was followed across the finish line by two other Cougar winners, Andy Parece and Paul Rienzo. Tom Callahan, Jim Glocking, Bill Welch and John Farina were other point winners as they finished fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth.

On Saturday morning Austin participated in the Freshman Catholic Invitational Cross-Country Meet. Dennis Curran, Jim Robinson, Mark Sturzo (Tewksbury), Paul Fawcett and Sean Moroney all performed well. The Cougar yearling team finished third in a field of 15 teams.

Well, it finally happened!! The Austin footballers broke out of their winless streak by pounding Methuen High School last Saturday 20 - 8.

The Cougars scored twice in the second period and again early in the third period to gain their first win of the season.

Austin seemed to be able to move the ball almost at will against the inept Methuen defenders. Only four Cougar fumbles prevented the visitors from mounting the score.

In the second period Mark Govoni climaxed an Austin sustained drive by plunging into the end zone from six yards out.

The conversion points were registered as Govoni successfully passed to Kurt Meyer. This was the first time this year that the Cougars were able to convert.

Later in the same period Tony Santullo gained the scoring honors as he crossed into paydirt from the five yard line. Santullo earned the right to score, since he had literally torn holes in the Methuen defense. On the drive that carried 60 yards for a score, Santullo carried six times, averaging eight yards per carry. In the third period, Quarterback Mark Govoni provided the histrionics by racing 47 yards on an option keep for the third and final score of the afternoon.

Austin's defense again was superb. Special mention must be made of Paul Tucker whose solid tackling stymied Methuen's offense from the first series of downs. Tony Santullo and Kury Meyer were two other lands who played stalwart roles on defense. Both were ever alert as they intercepted desperation aerials by Tom St. Paul.

Coach Larry Klimas was especially pleased with this win. He feels that his club is rapidly improving. He is sure that the Cougars will be tough against future opponents Chelmsford, Dracut and Tewksbury.

Ode to the Tewksbury Blood Committee

The TBC has an interest in all of us.
We will take your blood without ever a fuss.

If you are too young or you are too old you are exempt, so we are told.

If we can't take your blood because you're too skinny we put thumbs down to the nitty gritty.

Marge, Barbara and I will be there to help
if and when we hear an almighty yelp.

After Janet and nurses have pricked your ear the staff will be there to stick you, my dear, for someone who needs it is always right near.

Our blood types are sent all over the states;
researched and tested to find their mates.

For you never know when you might need a pint of blood in case you bleed.

The Red Cross has set us up with a goal we have to get more each year, we're told.

Now if you haven't given this year at all come to the K of C and get on the ball.

It's November 7, ten to three forty-five
We'll mind your kids and give you a ride.

It's on a Sunday, so you have no excuse.
So get out of that chair, or come down off the roof.

Don't forget to eat so you won't feel beat to go bowling or golfing or whatever you want or else we'll be calling, and you know Flanagan can haunt.

We don't like to do it, but blood's needed whole and it's for everyone to help reach the goal.

We know who can give, so no need to resist for Carol, our secretary, has the past-donors list.

Don't give us baloney, for we know when it's phony.
(You know it's a pun, but we all have some fun.)

If you can't give for some good reason we know sometime it's just the season.

But you can still always make some calls or work a few hours down at the halls.

All are welcome and noone's ever turned down whether giving or helping we never do frown.

We'd like two-hundred-fifty pints this time, we say to insure us that we won't have to pay ninety or more dollars a day, or maybe, even, triple your pay.

Helen and Rose will give you a lift.
after you give your lifesaving gift.

Some coffee and coke, sometimes crackers and cheese for these two ladies are out to please.

If tragedy strikes in your very own home for heaven sake get right on the phone.

Call the Tewksbury Blood Committee wherever you be, in the town or the city.

Your needs we hope we'll be able to fill so that you will never get the bill.

We must make sure that there will always be enough blood to go around for you and for me.

But if you don't come that'll be your own choice.
If an accident does happen you'll hear your inner voice

"Why didn't I give? I've had many chances, instead I decided to go to the dances.

Now my blood type is rare,
and they don't have it to spare.

What a pity if there was no Blood Committee.

P.S. Call 658-6925
now to make your appointment.

Health Center to emphasize primary care

The Regional Health Center in Wilmington will emphasize family oriented primary care, according to Connie Sprauer, recently appointed director of the soon to be constructed Ambulatory Care Center.

To be owned and operated by Choate Hospital, the Regional Health Center is slated for construction within 18 months and is to be located on a 24 acre lot at the intersection of routes 93 and 62, site of the historic Harnden Tavern.

"The center will be open 24 hours a day," said Ms. Sprauer, "and emphasis will be placed on primary care."

"This will be a place where the Jones family can go and have pretty much all of their basic health needs satisfied: Mr. Jones for his high blood pressure and stiff back, Mrs. Jones for her blood test and annual pap smear, and Johnny Jones for his measles immunization and poison ivy. In fact, they might all see the same doctor, a family practitioner. Or they might see some other specialist or specialists depending on their need. They will also be able to see the same doctor when they return to the Center four months later."

Those requiring hospitalization will be transferred to Choate Hospital or some other appropriate inpatient facility.

"There are basically three levels of health care," explained Ms. Sprauer. "Secondary care is provided in a typical community hospital such as Choate. Tertiary care is practiced in highly specialized institutions such as the Lahey and Mayo Clinics." She continued, "primary care is pretty much everything else. This includes treatment of acute illness and the management of chronic disease, plus routine and preventative health care; any type of basic care that can be provided outside a hospital setting."

Sprauer further explained that the term "ambulatory care center" is used to describe the facility in which primary care is practiced. She said, "the center brings together a wide variety of medical specialists and gives the added advantage of on site x-ray and lab facilities."

Expected to practice at the center are specialists in pediatrics, family medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, internal medicine and surgery. Sprauer said that additional specialists will practice at the center depending on need.

Commenting on the Regional Health Center's walk-in unit, George Hazel, M.D., the center's newly appointed medical director said, "Most people who now use the emergency rooms in the area are not really in need of emergency care. If your child comes down with a sore throat and a runny nose, he can most economically be treated in what is known as a primary care setting." He said, "If you are paying emergency room prices for your child's cold, you are probably paying too much."

Choate officials estimate that 80 per cent of all visits to the hospital's emergency service are not true emergencies.

Dr. Hazel explained that emergency rooms are equipped and staffed to handle true life-threatening emergencies such as heart attack or serious injury. As a result of the cost of highly specialized equipment and personnel is reflected in emergency service fees.

As the Health Center has evolved over the last several years, much importance has been attached to the continuity of patient care and personalized medical services. Both concepts are prominent part of patient care philosophy, drafted by the original sponsors of the center, and later incorporated into Choate Hospital's Certificate of Need.

Other key elements of patient care philosophy are accessibility of care, quality of care, accountability of care, and efficiency of care.

"Obviously we are very much concerned with the quality and efficiency of care," commented Sprauer. "We also expect to create a setting in which the patient is treated as an individual. The idea is for doctors and other health professionals at the center to get to know the patient so he or she can be treated in the context of his or her family, neighborhood and community."

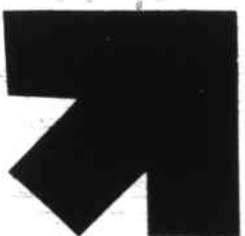

Sprauer also explained that despite Choate's ownership of the center, local advisory boards will be maintained in Wilmington to offer advice and consultation on the center's operation. She said, "we feel it is important there be strong community involvement in policy making and oversight to make sure that the center is providing care that is wanted and needed by the communities to be served, and delivered in a continuous, personalized manner."

The towns to be served by the Regional Health Center are Andover, Billerica, Burlington, North Reading, Reading, Tewksbury, Wilmington and Woburn.

SPORTS

FITCH BREAKS AWAY: With some helpful blocking by Tom Bavota, (77), Wildcat Gordie Fitch (34) heads for Wilmington's third touchdown of the day.

Wildcats bounce back

Senior back Gordie Fitch ran for three touchdowns and Bob Sferrazza added two more as Wilmington buried Dracut, 34 - 6.

Fitch coming back from an ankle injury which hampered him in the last two games ran for 155 yards in 13 carries. The offensive line played well opening up holes all afternoon, especially in the third quarter.

Any thoughts of collapse on Wilmington's part were forgotten in the first quarter as Gordie Fitch danced in from the 10. The short drive was helped by a poor Middle punt putting the Wildcats in business at the Dracut 31.

The defense minus Dino Esposito, held again with Wilmington taking over on their 12 yard line. Three plays later Bob Sferrazza scored on a 70 yard pass play from Jim Stewart with the help of a big block from Bob Kohler.

Wilmington added another score in the second quarter as Fitch topped off a 58 yard drive romping in from the 26. Stewart's kick was good for a 21 - 0 halftime lead.

The second half opened with an explosion as the Wildcats scored the first two times they held the ball.

Fitch, hitting paydirt from 65 yards and on the same play Bob Sferrazza racing 50 yards with Tom Bavota and Ray Gaud leading the way.

For the rest of the game the JV unit saw action as the offense moved the ball well, with John Fahey, Jim Moran, Jim Bibeau and Pavelcek all running well.

Dracut's only points came in the final period against the second defense.

Of all the injuries, end Dino Esposito still is having some problem with his leg.

The second round will be played at Boston College Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Wednesday, Oct. 27: Wildcats faced Billerica in defensive battle of the season and fought to a 1 - 1 tie at North Field to put Billerica in first place in MVC

Friday, Oct. 29: Tewksbury Redmen invaded North Intermediate field with a stubborn defense and for three periods held the Wildcats scoreless.

With only seven minutes in game, tri Capt. Steve Winchell headed in a corner kick by senior Jim Logan for the only score to squeak out a victory by 1 - 0.

Pop Warner C teams

Coach Len Howard's Golden Bears topped the Redskins 22 - 14 Saturday night under the lights at the town park. John Cushing, Gerry O'Reilly, and Tim Quinn scored touchdowns for the Bears. O'Reilly also converted four extra points.

The defense, led by hard-tackling Rich Doucette, Brian Fuller, Larry Maio, and Tim Robarge put constant pressure on the Skins' backs, while the defensive secondary of Lance Sullivan, Mike Ingersoll, Bob McCarthy and Mark Minervini covered the pass plays and sweeps quite well.

Great effort by the offensive line, centered by Brian Casey, and the blocking of Scott Dyas, Billy Soda, Chuck Burpee, Jack Meeker and Kevin Lee provided quarterback Lance Sullivan and the other backs with good running room. Sean McNeill handled the kicking chores proficiently and helped the defensive line from his end position.

The key plays of the game were John Cushing's interception, which led to the Bear's first score, and Brian Fuller's fumble recovery.

MVC forecast

Wildcats take a breather

While other MVC football squads have experienced peaks and valleys the Tewksbury Redmen have been on an unrestrained winning high since the 1976 season began. Coach Bob Aylward's crew currently sits atop the Division II schoolboy football ratings with Catholic Memorial the only other undefeated Division II team.

The Redmen have put four shutouts on the board while bombing six opponents by a whopping 144 - 30 count. Tewksbury's defense has surrendered just four touchdowns up to this point. The improved Billerica Indians have been the lone opponent to score twice against the Redmen.

Tewksbury has been remarkably consistent and injury-free. A pre-season injury to guard-linebacker John Limoli has been the only major casualty.

The rest of the conference has not been quite as consistent. The Wilmington Wildcats are the most serious threat to a Tewksbury championship. While they have buried some weak teams impressively, the cats came up short at Central as injuries took their toll. Last week Coach Fred Bellissimo had a full squad for practice sessions as his team prepared for Dracut. So what does this supposedly injury-riddled team do? They destroyed the Dracut Middies 34-6.

The Wildcats are healthy again. A big win heals all bumps and bruises. Area fans needn't be reminded that a classic showdown is set for Thanksgiving Day in Wilmington.

Billerica and Dracut are two teams at different levels of the emotional spectrum. The young Middies collapsed when they played the iron of the MVC. Tewksbury and Wilmington brought Dracut back to earth with a 69 - 14 whacking.

Coach Clyde Meyerhoffer's Billerica team has come together with a rush - the Indian surge came to climax last week with a 22 point fourth period explosion to crush Central Catholic. Wilmington still has to play this Billerica team. A loss to the Indians would ruin Wildcat title hopes. Billerica game Tewksbury an early season scare before falling 20 - 14.

Lawrence Central is a tough club to figure. One week the Red Raider defense shuts off Wilmington at key moments and the next week Billerica pushes that same defense all over the field. This team with the off-beat personality is Tewksbury's opponent this week.

Andover is a shocking 3 - 3 as Lawrence toppled the Warriors last week 20 - 15. Andover mentor Dick Collins is not accustomed to a middle-of-the-pack position.

Five teams are still in the race for MVC honors as the scheduled enters its seventh week. The forecast record: 21 right; nine wrong.

Tewksbury at Central....Last year Central defeated the Redmen 21 - 14 in one of the best games of the season. These teams have developed a heated rivalry.

The Central stadium is a wind-bowl and the slightest breeze is magnified.

PAGE NINE

INSTANT REPLAY: After his interception play was called back for passing interference on both sides, Wilmington QB Steve Woods (14) intercepted the next pass. Unfortunately, the ref continued the instant replay, calling back the second play. The action occurred late in the second quarter, and the clock ran out before Dracut could score.

Youth Hockey Highlights

Squirt A's take pair
At Danvers (4-2-1)...The Squirt squeaked by a surprisingly strong Lynn squad by a score of 2-1. The opponents took the lead 1-0 early in the first period. The score remained unchanged until the second period when Dennis Moran's persistent forechecking allowed him to get possession of the puck just to the left of the goalie as Dennis sent a beautiful wrist shot into the nets to tie the score.

Before the second period ended center Danny Surrette stole the puck deep in the Lynn zone. His shots on net rebounded to the right wing side where a well positioned Eric Berger picked off the rebound and scored the tie-breaker and winning goal for the A's.

Lynn was not a serious threat for the remainder of the game. Tony Aresco's goals against average is now 1.57 per game.

At Wilmington (5-2-0)...It was a wild up and down contest as the A's bested Manchester, N.H., 6-4 led by a hat trick by Jimmy Newhouse.

The first period was all Wilmington as the A's jumped to a 3-0 lead.

Kevin Cullivan registered the first goal assisted by Danny Surrette. Paul Brady added the second tally, assisted by Harry Cunningham. The period's scoring was completed by Jimmy Newhouse assisted by Jimmy Taylor and Sean Lowney.

In the second frame each team added a tally. Wilmington's goal was by Jimmy Newhouse unassisted. The period ended with the A's ahead 4-1.

The third period opened with Harry Cunningham scoring the game winner, assisted by David Fuller and Dennis Moran. Jimmy Newhouse then scored the insurance goal, assisted by Jimmy Taylor and Sean Lowney. Manchester, N.H. answered with three goals, but to no avail.

Happy birthday to Dennis Moran on November 4.

Squirt B's win 7th

The B's skated to their seventh win of the season against Peabody 6-3. Peabody opened the scoring with only 28 seconds gone in the game. The B's answered back 30 seconds later on a perfect pass from David Lux sending Greg Rogers in all alone to even the score.

The B's picked up two more goals in the first period, an unassisted goal by David Florio, and then Greg Rogers with his second of the day. Peabody came back with two quick goals to make a 3-3 standoff in the second period. Wilmington finally put it together on a Doug Coolberth goal from David Florio. David Buzzell picked up his sixth of the season from David Lux and Greg Rogers. Tommy Craig wrapped up the scoring for the day on a tip in from Doug Coolberth.

The defense of Costantino, R. Newhouse, Richter, Poole and McFayden played very well. The B's will play two games Saturday November 6; 1:10 p.m. at Danvers against Marblehead and 6:50 p.m. in Wilmington, against first place team Westford.

Bantam A's defeat Lowell

In a game that showed a fine exhibition of team play, Wilmington defeated Lowell by a large margin last Thursday evening.

The scoring was slow in the first period with only one goal going to Paul Boudreau.

The second period saw a flurry of goals with Dennis Foley opening the door with a hat trick. His example was followed by Jimmy Burns and Steve Scanlon each of whom scored, to the period at 6-2.

The last period the A's rallied to score three more goals. For Paul Boudreau it was his second goal of the night, and single goals went to Scott Richards and Rich Robinson. Along with some fine goal tending by Rick Ballou and excellent back-up goal tending by the Bantam B's goalie Mattie DePasquale the game was on ice.

Assists went to Dennis Foley with two; Jimmy Burns with two and single assists to Tim McCann and Eric Banda.

Bantam A's win again

In a game played last Sunday against Peabody, Wilmington put another mark in the win column.

It was a contest greatly influenced by penalties on Wilmington. This had a great impact on the A's scoring power.

The first period opened with two fine goals, one scored by Tim McCann and the other by Dennis Foley with no assists.

The second period saw an unassisted goal by Rich Robinson and a flood of five penalties on the A's. This allowed Peabody to get on the score board despite the fine efforts of goalie Rick Ballou.

The last period was full of good two-way hockey by both clubs with a fine pass by Rich Robinson to Tim McCann who beat the Peabody goalie cleanly to win it 4-1. This makes A's ten wins with no losses and one tie on the season.

Bantam B's win 7-2 October 24: The big blue machine keeps right on rolling with a 7-2 win over East Boston at Danvers. Good defense plus excellent goal keeping by Matt DePasquale has maintained the B's on a winning track.

A 44 to 11 shot advantage also helped. The scoring had Ford two goals; Lowney, Smith and Foley a goal apiece; Zambarnardi and Stokes one goal and one assist each; assists to MacDonald (2), Wuberg (2) with one each to Turner, Duggan and Murphy.

October 30: Danvers was the opponent at Danvers as the B's ran their unbeaten record to 11-0-0 with a 10-1 win Saturday in spite of playing one third of the game short handed.

The B's scored two short handed goals; one each by Potenza and Lowney. Danvers scored first on a power play. The B's THEN PUMPED IN FIVE GOALS IN LESS THAN THREE MINUTES. Scoring had Potenza, two goals, one assist; MacMullen, MacDonald and Smith one goal and three assists each; Wibert and Murphy one goal, one assist each. Single goals were made by Ford, Foley and Lowney plus assists to Turner (2) and Zambarnardi (1).

Next games - Tonight at 7:10 p.m. at Wilmington vs Cambridge; Friday, Nov. 1 at 10 p.m. vs North Reading at Danvers.

Bantam B's

On October 18 the B's won another game by beating Lowell 5-1. The game was 1-0 at the start of period three on a Rick Zambarnardi goal assisted by Don Foley when the B's added four goals in four minutes.

Keith MacDonald scored on a penalty shot, Lowell scored 13 seconds later. That was followed by a Bob Lowney from Smith and Duggan. Then Stokes from Foley and Zambarnardi. The last goal came from Smith assisted by Duggan and Lowney.

Tennis Club awards banquet

Bob Auer Tennis Club president

Bob Auer of Andover St., has been elected to his second term as president of the Wilmington Tennis Club. Serving with Mr. Auer will be Carroll Gillespie of Carson Ave., who will be serving his first term as vice president; Sandy Durling of Woodland Drive will serve her second term as treasurer and Gail Protopapas of Pilling Rd., will fill the position of secretary for the second time.

The election was held during the last general meeting of the season on October 28.

On October 22, the Wilmington Tennis Club held its third annual awards banquet at the Casa DiFlor. A total of 90 guests, sponsors and club members attended an exciting evening of dinner and dancing along with the awarding of many trophies and special awards.

Checks in payment for reservations at the upcoming winter socials should be turned in as soon as possible.

MVC forecast

Leaders in the Central offense are quarterback Paul Shimkonis and halfback Dan Durkin. Raiders have a huge defensive line that has been inconsistent.

Andover transfer Billy Trainor (6-2, 280) anchors the Raider front line. To win Central will have to cut down the TMHS sweep. If TMHS quarterback Brian Wolfe is forced to throw often the Redmen could be in for a battle. The game of the week in the MVC.

A Tewksbury win practically assures them of at least a piece of the MVC title.

Tewksbury by six points

Methuen at Wilmington....Methuen has the most unimaginative offense in the conference. If the Wildcats can stop the fullback dive on the first series, you can be sure that the Rangers will panic. The Methuen defense has improved, but not enough to offset a horrible offense. Tackle John DeFusco is a good bet to be all-conference. Halfback Kevin Tarr has been a monumental disappointment for the Rangers.

THE FLU EXPLANATION: With Evelyn Andersen and Public Health Nurse Ann Butters explaining, the forms, Einar Olson, Esther Smith and Scott Romanowski register for their bivalent flu shots. Mrs. Smith, who is back to the camera, was the first Wilmington resident to receive a flu shot in the current season.

Monovalent flu shots for Wilmington residents will be available on Sunday, Nov. 7 at the high school.

Monovalent flu clinic Sunday at WHS

The Board of Health will conduct its second flu clinic Sunday, at the High School, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Anyone, from 18 to 64 is eligible.

This clinic is to be against Swine Flu - Monovalent.

Those persons who are allergic to eggs are not eligible, and those who have a fever, or who have received other vaccine in the past two weeks are not eligible.

Last Sunday's clinic, in the High School, was "like a charm" according to one lady who attended. It was very smooth. Four hundred and twenty-eight persons were inoculated, all over 65 years of age.

Letter to the editor

The Keywanettes of Wilmington would like to contribute $75.00 to the Scott MacGillivray Fund. We are a community organization operating in the High School.

We wanted to do something for the youth of the community so we decided to contribute to a fund to build a new Little League field.

We hope this donation will help.

Sincerely,
Patricia Carta, Sec.

Donations have also been received from: Eleanor Talbot, 10 Oregon Rd., and Dawn and John Clarke, 1262 Whipple Road, Tewksbury and from Donna Elaine Fisher of 4 Rollins Rd., Wilmington.

Police raise $3098.17 for Jimmy Fund

The Wilmington Police Association has announced that its fourth annual auction, held October 21, raised $3098.17, with all proceeds going to the Jimmy Fund.

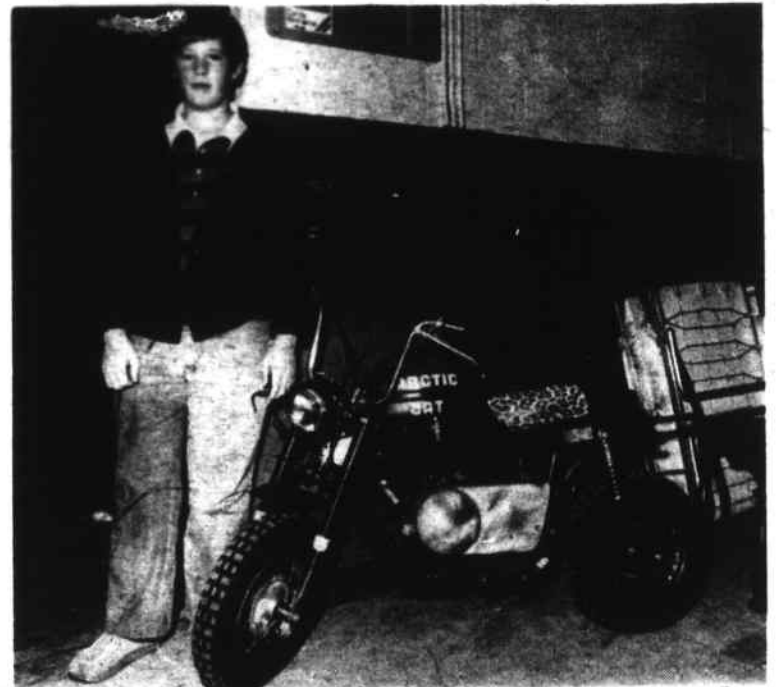

The largest gift to the auction was a car, donated by Wilmington Ford, and purchased for $850 by the Constantino family of Heather Drive, Wilmington.

A Wilmington boy made a very large donation in the form of a mini-bike, which sold for $90.

Twelve-year-old (now 13) Steve MacDonald wanted to do something really good, his mother said. He is the son of former selectman and Mrs. Bruce MacDonald.

A prize drawing was also held, with Rep. Fred Cain drawing the winning tickets. First prize was a Seth Thomas grandfather clock which was won by the Public Wholesale Outlet. The second prize, a stereo component, was won by Wayne Sawyer.

PHILANTHROPY AT AN EARLY AGE: The Jimmy Fund is $90 richer thanks to the generosity of Steve MacDonald of Chestnut Street, Wilmington. He donated his mini-bike to the Wilmington Police Association Auction, where it sold for $90.

Steve has just become a teen-ager, turning 13 on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Safety of children

Twenty-four women, in the Wilmington Traffic Supervisors, under the command of Sgt. Maryann Langone have completed a month long course on Safety of School Children. The course was under the direction of the Registry of Motor Vehicles, under the direction of Peter Kopanon, Supervisor of Special Services, Education and Enforcement.

Safety of school children was the main subject, as was the correct use of hand signals for the direction of traffic. Simulated traffic conditions were reenacted to enable the supervisors to learn of the various hazardous situations, and to be able to handle them in an official manner.

Wilmington's Traffic Supervisors are also Special Police Officers, with the power to arrest, and Inspector Kopanon dealt thoroughly in the many facets of the Motor Vehicle Laws, and the issuance of citations for the violators of those laws.

The course was conducted in the Wilmington Library.

The Incarnation Church in Melrose was the setting for an evening ceremony uniting Karen Marie Johnson, daughter of Donald and Claire Johnson of Melrose, and Richard James MacDonald, son of Daniel and Alice MacDonald of Burlington Ave., Wilmington.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister Christine Johnson of Melrose. Bridesmaids were Susan Boyson of Melrose and Carolyn Fusco of Revere. Debbie Crovo of Revere served as flowergirl and Kevin O'Connor of Billerica was the ringbearer.

Edward MacDonald of Dracut served his brother as best man while ushering duties were in charge of David Johnson of Melrose, brother of the bride and Robert MacDonald of Pinehurst, brother of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Father Fay and was followed by a reception at the Irish American in Malden.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown trimmed with lace and pink ribbon designed and made by the bride. She carried white and pink roses. The attendants wore pink and yellow gowns, also fashioned by the bride.

Following a honeymoon trip to Dorado Beach Puerto Rico, the couple is now residing in North Andover.

Not enough water and too many burglar alarms

The Chamber of Commerce, October 26th heard from the employees of the town. It was all arranged - the Town Manager, Sterling Morris, had one employee from each town department under his control as speakers, at the Chamber of Commerce breakfast.

The businessmen learned from the Town Manager that the business of running Wilmington is a $15 million proposition, with 300 employees in the schools, and 200 in other departments.

They learned that Wilmington does not have enough water; that there is a good fire prevention program; that there is a lot of vandalism in the schools and that the police department is in pretty good shape - except that vandalism is a big problem and there are some burglar alarms that are being continually shut off in police headquarters.

That last statement came from Officer Bernard Nally, and more than one Wilmington businessman expressed his alarm, after the meeting was over. Whose alarms were being shut off, they wanted to know?

Filtration Plant

Paul Duggan, Water Department employee, said that the town has two well fields shut down, because of excessive iron ore. The town as a consequence is low on water, and has a low pressure system. The water is dirty, from the wells that are shut off.

Duggan said that a water filtration plant is needed. The Town Meeting a couple of years ago refused to buy one. Out of eight thousand voters in the town there were 400 at that town meeting. The filtration plant would cost about $2 million. He hopes that there will be another vote, and that some of the businessmen would be at the town meeting.

Wilmington has asked for three new water mains, to cost $2.2 millions, under the Public Works Employment Act. The new water mains will equalize water pressure, in various parts of Wilmington.

Andre LeFave

Number two speaker was Andre LeFave, heavy duty equipment operator. He described the Highway Department - 125 miles of highway of which 80 are paved. There are 18 snow plowing trucks. The salt used for winter time is low value. Recently the town acquired a new sweeper, to keep the streets clean.

Fire Prevention

Fire prevention was described by Fire Fighter John Brown. The Wilmington Fire Department made 1156 emergency runs in 1971. In 1976 the number is projected to be 1900.

The ambulance service is excellent. There is a team of Emergency Medical Technicians, (EMT) - professionally trained.

Dave Morse and Al Antinelli described the Cemetery Department and the Public Buildings Department.

There are 47 employees in the Public Buildings Department, of whom nine are CETA employees.

Those men have a steady job, just working on glass. Windows are being broken, continually, from vandalism.

The Public Buildings budget is $1 million, which includes fuel and light.

Engineering

The Town's Engineering Department was described by Bob Leathe. There are four employees, under the Town Engineer. They check over all plans for the town, - all deeds, all roads.

Police Department

Officer Bernard Nally was the last speaker. He represented the employees of the Police Department.

There are 33 persons. Two clerks, one lieutenant, sergeants and 26 patrolmen. There are also two dogs.

Every new man has to attend a police academy in his first year. Right now there are 12 police officers who are going to college, part time. Nally thought the police department was in pretty good shape. It was, he said, in better shape than some other nearby towns.

But there are problems. Particularly there are house breaks, and there is vandalism and malicious damage.

Damage to property is probably the biggest problem in the police department he said.

Statistically, there were 80 cars stolen, and 300 cases of break and entry last year. There are over 4500 complaints listed in the police reports.

Last year there were over 500 cases tried in court, with over 100 jury verdicts. There were 450 traffic citations. Over 350 persons were taken into protective custody, which means that they were under the influence of alcohol.

The Wilmington Police have issued over 500 ID cards, for firearms, and there are over 200 persons who are licensed to carry weapons.

It was when he began to describe the burglar alarm system that he was heard. Some of the systems, he said, are being short circuited so much that the desk officer has to turn them off.

In other words, there are places of business in Wilmington in which there is no protection, from forcible entry by burglars. That was the message that some men discussed, as they left that meeting.

PAUL DUGGAN TALKS OF DIRTY WATER: The Water Department employee was one of a number of speakers, at the annual Businessman's Breakfast, a week ago Tuesday, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce.
